Good afternoon,

I am emailing to express my concern that Dr. Ricanati has been forwarded my email regarding this ongoing retaliatory activity.

I have already expressed my concern with his ongoing involvement in this matter, and he is currently a respondent in a Title IX retaliation claim that I have filed, and he has already abdicated his involvement in this situation via his assignment of Dr. Greenfield as my interim society dean. It is therefore inappropriate that his involvement is continued in this matter.

Respectfully,

John Noakes

Good morning, Dr. Greenfield.

I have thought about our discussion on Friday and the questions provided to me, and I have found that this PWG process which is secondary to the Early Concern reports is retaliatory in nature, morally wrong, unjust, legally actionable, and frankly inappropriate to continue. I have decided not to cooperate any further in this process, as it is demonstrable retaliation for a situation I have been embroiled in for 6 months.

Thank you for your understanding.
